Congressman Robison Replies to Gov. Black

My dear Mr. Burman:— I just received your last issue of the Mountain Advocate. I always enjoy it. I think the family reads every line of it. We like to find out what is going on at home. You are doing a great service for the people.

I notice an article printed in the Advocate, written by Governor Black in which he takes issue with a statement hereof appearing in your paper on the road question. It is not my purpose to reflect in any way on Governor Black. I would not knowingly do him an injustice. While we differ politically I have always felt and now feel kindly toward Governor Black.

In March Mr. Wiley, the then Road Commissioner of Kentucky, promised the representatives from the counties of Rockcastle, Laurel, Whitley, Knox and Bell and myself that he would approve the road that these counties for Federal Aid and that our roads would be built under Federal Aid in 1919. He confirmed this promise in numerous subsequent letters. I made a great many trips to Frankfort and to the Road Department here at Washington, wrote many letters and sent a great many telegrams trying to get action. Along in August Mr. Wiley resigned and Governor Black appointed Mr. Boggs Road Commissioner. I could get nothing done here at Washington because the Frankfort authorities would not approve and send in any plans and I was in Williamsburg in September and was informed by the officials there that they had gotten up their plans, according to directions from Mr. Wiley, and had sent them in.

There was a great deal of complaint by both Democrats and Republicans over the delay of the Road Department at Frankfort. I was constantly getting letters and telegrams from the officials in the other counties mentioned. I was very anxious to get action. I went to the office of Tye and Siler in Williamsburg in September and had Miss Minnie Murphy, their stenographer, to write the letter in question to Governor Black. I mailed this letter to Governor Black and a copy of it to Mr. Boggs, the Road Commissioner, at Frankfort. Governor Black says he did not receive the letter. I received no answer to either of them, neither was either letter returned to me. I wrote to Governor Black again in November and he replied he had not received the September letter. I retained a carbon copy of the letter written on the letter-head of Tye and Siler and I sent this carbon copy to Governor Black to show him that I had written the letter. He returned the carbon copy to me and I now have it.

Governor Black says that he cannot understand why I wrote to him in September or November as he was not a road engineer. I knew that he lived in Eastern Kentucky and knew that we needed Federal Aid for our roads, although he was not a road engineer. I knew that he was the Chief Executive of the State, charged with the impartial enforcement and administration of the laws of the State and also that Mr. Boggs was his Commissioner. I therefore requested him to see Mr. Boggs and urge him to approve and send these plans to Washington. I do not agree with the Governor that he had no more to do with the enforcement of the law in this road matter than any other person. If he did not have a voice to do with it then some other person, like myself, he was responsible for the right guarantee of the road under the constitution and laws of Kentucky. I feel that Mr. Boggs, Governor from May until November, I would have made it my duty to see that Eastern Kentucky got its fair proportion of Federal Aid money.

The Governor says if there was any objection to the plan of Eastern Kentucky he should have known it. In going over the plan I do not understand why he failed to observe this. If he will look over the record and maps in the Road Department at Frankfort and see that Washington he will see it plainly. One of the persons in charge of the Road Department here at Washington, in showing me the road map of Kentucky, showed me the various roads that had been approved for Federal Aid in Kentucky and not one of them in Eastern Kentucky and he stated that it was plain to be seen where the Road Department in Kentucky was placing the Federal money.

Mr. McCall, Democratic Commissioner of Agriculture and later Democratic candidate for Secretary of State during the recent campaign, said in my presence at Jamestown, Kentucky, in boasting of the achievements of the Stanley and Black administration, that there had been nearly eighteen hundred miles of roads built in Kentucky under Federal Aid. In my reply to him I pointed out that not one inch of macadam road had been built or approved for building in either the Tenth or Eleventh Districts of Kentucky. It seems to me that a blind man could see that we have been discriminated against and I am disappointed in this discrimination. I shall not accept it as an excuse in Governor Morrow if he should state that he was not a road engineer and has nothing to do with the roads. If he does not give us a square deal in this I shall not hesitate to criticize him. He should not put in a Road Commissioner or permit him to continue in office if he will not give to Eastern Kentucky its fair proportion of Federal Aid money. The Governor will be justified in removing him from office.

I am more interested in roads in Eastern Kentucky than I am in any other governmental activity. We must have better roads. We are entitled to this Federal Aid and we propose to continue to fight until we get our part. We simply want a square deal. This has been denied us by the Democratic Road Department at Frankfort and because of inaction on the part of our Governor. Respectfully,
J. M. Robison.

Prof. Lytle's Evening Spanish Class will meet again until after the Holiday Season.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWING RAPIDLY

The Hi-Land Park Sunday School which was organized about three months ago by Mesdames E. T. Franklin, D. M. Humfreet and Fannie Sampson now has an enrollment of 46. The ladies are planning a Christmas tree for the school and will welcome donations to buy a treat for the children.

DESTROY FOUR STILLIS

LONDON, Ky., Dec. 11.—Sheriffs W. H. Steele, of Laurel, and Read P. Black, of Knox, have returned from a joint moonshine raid on the Knox-Laurel border where they destroyed four complete stills and caught one of the operators.—Louisville Herald.

MUSICAL

The members of the Mozart Music Club entertained their parents at an Impromptu Musical in Miss Truhoe's studio at B. B. 1. Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 10th, at 3 o'clock. The program consisted of sketches, selections from musical journals, both vocal and instrumental, solos and duets. Every number was well rendered, the beginners being especially attractive.

When the President and Secretary appeared with a large basket of fruit talking and laughter were in order and were heartily entered into by each one as it was a suggestion of approaching holidays.

The next meeting of the Club will be with Master Braxton Stewart in 1920.

OIL NEWS.

Hinkle and Wyrick who are drilling a well near Goldbug, two miles west of Wofford, Whitley County are down 700 feet.

A. A. Street, F. C. Brumback and Irving Simon of Nashville were here Saturday looking over the oil field.

Mr. Williams, representing Robison and Co. who have leases on Stinking Creek has reserved rooms for himself at the Jones Hotel for January drilling.

Gas was recently struck at a depth of a few feet on the farm belonging to St. John's Institute, Corbin. Shots had been put in to determine the thickness of a vein of coal on the farm and gas later flowed thru the broken rock. A good well, which is now plugged, was brought in on this property sixteen years ago and it is probable that both gas and oil will be encountered by some one with enterprise enough to drill.

WILL BUILD SILO.

Mance Bingham of Girdler is said to be preparing to build a 500 barrel silo and already has part of the material on the ground. He says he believes in improving his farm. The Advocate would be glad to see silos go up all over Knox County. Corn can be cut much earlier and saved from excessive fall rains. It is also stated that butter fat can be increased 25 per cent by the use of ensilage.

MISS FLORENCE CAMPBELL'S RECITAL A BIG SUCCESS

On Saturday night at Union College Chapel, Miss Florence Campbell gave practical proof of the splendid musical work she is doing for Union. The vocal and instrumental performances were both of a high order and the rendering of the Cuntata at the close showed what she can do with massed voices. Those who failed to attend missed a treat.

The orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Ahler was also a pleasant part of the evening's program. This orchestra is making progress by leaps and bounds and is an important feature of Union's musical educational system.

OTIS BURROUGHS HURT

Otis Burroughs, of Union College, was badly cut and bruised about the face and head when he jumped from a moving automobile on last Friday. He struck on his head turning a somersault and was picked up unconscious. He is receiving every attention at Union and Robert Blair has installed himself as his nurse, which is a chummy job to do.

ST. JOHN'S MAKES GOOD CORN

Harold E. Wentworth, Superintendent of St. John's Institute, Corbin, is a civil engineer by profession but has made the training of boys and girls a life work. Attached to St. John's is a farm of some 300 acres, all of which is carefully platted off on a map which is kept in Mr. Wentworth's office.

The soil of the farm is not as good as we have in our own part of Knox County, but thru corn testing experiments which are taught at the Institute, he has evolved a system of planting only the best seed and on twenty-six acres over 900 bushels of corn were gathered this year and in excellent condition. More than half of the cornstalks carried two fine ears of corn.

Mr. Wentworth consults his map of the farm and plants his different crops with an eye to both profit and the building up of the soil and is making a success in both directions.

It is a pleasure to know that St. John's, which is in Knox County, is to share in the proceeds of the Episcopal Church Drive which has just been completed. The Institute is doing a splendid work in educating the younger children from the mountains as well as many Corbin children.

DEMISE

David Gibson, son of Mrs. Otle Weaver, died Saturday morning at the Lexington Hospital following an operation for mustard abscess with which he had been afflicted for over a year. For some months he had been a pupil at St. John's Institute, Corbin, and following a severe attack of the malady, the Superintendent of the school, Mr. Harold E. Wentworth, had him placed in the Lexington hospital under the care of one of the best surgeons obtainable, one of the teachers accompanying him. At first it was believed David might get well but spinal meningitis set in and his mother was sent to him arriving on the day before his death. Bishop Lewis W. Burton and Archdeacon F. B. Wentworth personally did all possible for David and his mother.

The remains were brought to Harboursville and the funeral was held at the Creasey home Sunday afternoon. Superintendent Wentworth, from Corbin, and many friends and relatives attending the last rites. Rev. R. L. Creal read the funeral service.

The sympathy of her many friends will go out to Mrs. Weaver and the sister and brothers in the hour of their loss.

OUTSIDE ENGINEER INSPECTS OUR STREETS

On Sunday afternoon, Geo. Faulkner took Mr. Harold E. Wentworth, City Engineer of Corbin, over our newly paved streets and his judgment is that Harboursville got mighty good work at the hands of Contractor S. J. Condon. He told the editor of the Advocate that the paved streets compare favorably with those of any city in this section of Kentucky. He was also somewhat surprised at the amount of work done here which is in excess of that done at Corbin. However, that city had to spend some $10,000 on sewers for the street drainage. Mr. Wentworth was also pleased with the absence of sand, mud and leaves which are carried off by our splendid drainage.

MISS LEGER BREAKS ARM

Miss Ida Leger, of King, and one of Knox County's popular young teachers, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm in two places as she was starting for the depot with her brother, J. E. Leger, on Sunday morning.

GRADUATE STUDENTS CLUB

The graduate students of the University met a week ago Monday to organize a Graduate Student Club. R. C. Miller, of the College of Agriculture, son of R. C. Miller, of King, Ky., was elected president, with Miss Leluh Gault, of the Chemistry Department, as secretary and treasurer. The boys from the Mountains will come to the top wherever they are placed.

A nice Christmas present to loved ones away from home—The Mountain Advocate, of course.

RED CROSS SEALS CAMPAIGN STARTS

Sales for the first six days of the Red Cross Christmas Seals have not been up to the mark set by the promoters of the sale, which includes every public health agency in Kentucky. The State Board of Health, the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, the Red Cross, the Public Health Nursing Associations in all parts of the State, and the County Tuberculosis Associations.

Many stamps have been sold in the intensive campaign in northern Kentucky, where W. C. Ryerson, a newspaper man, is chairman. In Western Kentucky and in Central Kentucky, too, reports show that many seals have been sold, but not enough to make the state's quota unless they are considerably increased.

In Lexington the school children have sold their quotas and have sent in requisitions for more Seals. Major Ernest B. Kille, who is assisting Chairman J. A. Goodson there, offered prizes of $100 for the best seals salesman among the children, and the very first day the school quota was all sold.

It is hoped to finish the campaign this week, but if necessary, it will be continued until the quota of $130,660 is raised. Many more Seals are expected to be sold this week.

A FAMILY FEAST

J. H. Turner on Monday chose the largest turkey in his possession and laid it on the block. It had to be a big one since, owing to the H. C. L. and needing a really and truly meat, the following crowd of his children and their attachments descended on him. Mrs. B. P. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mealer, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mealer, Mr. and Mrs. Aulin Simon, his brother, Jim Turner of Brush Creek and Bro. Wells of Clay County. It was a crowd big enough to give heart failure to any ordinary individual but J. H. smiled, corralled and slew Mr. Mahomet Turkey who had been living a life of luxury with his harem. To his credit he said, the Mealers and other diners got every luxury the human stomach desires, even tho' in these costly days J. H. may be ruined for the rest of his life.

WILL TAKE CHURCH CENSUS

The various churches of the city with Dea. Ryerson at the head of the movement, intend to take a church membership census of Harboursville. It is hoped to do this before the holidays. The question asked will be the names, names of children, membership of what church, children's ages, other members of the home and membership in what church Sunday School attended and preference. This is a good work and should tend to line up our people for their various churches. Too many of our citizens are slack in their duty toward God and His church and we trust the taking of the census will awaken them to their religious needs and obligations.

TUESDAY CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Hugh Oldfield was hostess for the Tuesday Club, Dec. 9th, at her home on Pine St. The members answered roll call with items concerning the subject of the day—Red Cross Seals. Mrs. J. H. Tuggle, first Vice-President presided in the absence of the President, Mrs. Edward Faulkner was leader of the day. The subjects given were:—"Advertising for Health," Mrs. F. Burman, and "Last Christmas and This in the Red Cross," Mrs. W. B. Minton. Little Miss Catherine Faulkner read a story of the "Origin of the Red Cross Seal." The members are eagerly waiting for the new supply of Seals to purchase theirs and thus further help the great cause.

Miss Bertha King was winner in the Art Contest receiving an attractive and useful booklet, "My Engagements."

The rooms were decorated with Christmas colors, red and green, with the emblems of the Red Cross used in profusion. The dining room table and for its centerpiece a large red crepe basket with narcissus and Christmas greens, surrounded by dozens of small red crosses. Hidden under the centerpiece were red ribbons extending from the red crosses attached to which were slips of paper indicating the stunt each member was to do. A salad course was served.

ANNUAL RECEPTION

The Annual Dollar Social of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Tuggle, on River St., Friday evening, December 5th. Fifty dollars or more was the amount given by the members and their husbands. Fun and excitement prevailed throughout the evening, the contests and games proving most interesting. The invited guests—the men—enjoyed the reception to the extent that they requested to become honorary members of the society so they might have the privilege of being present at all the social functions given.

The ladies proved themselves the quicker in the peanut races with the exception of Mr. Decker who won his race. In the "Eye" contest Mr. James S. Golden was the best guesser. Miss Pelley made the best picture in the chewing gum contest. Mrs. James Golden was the luckiest in the Santa Claus game with Mr. Robert Cornett running a close second. Mr. John Standfill won in the Advertisement contest and Kenneth Tuggle guessed the next largest number. All winners received appropriate prizes. After matching quotations for lunch each couple was served with delicious refreshments. Mrs. Tuggle was a most delightful hostess and the party lasted until a late hour.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui. Try Cardui today."

I Owe My Life to PE-RU-NA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while plying my trade as an auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently, so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me, so I cannot praise it too highly."

Vigorous Health Only as Far Away as the Use of Pepto-Mangan

Creates Rich, Red Blood

Pepto-Mangan Obtainable in Liquid or Tablets—Insist on "Gude's" the Genuine.

There is really no reason why men or women with thin, watery blood and consequent poor health should remain in that unfortunate condition. Thin, nervous, run-down, tired people never get much happiness out of life.

Men and women with the bloom of health in their cheeks, a cheerful, sunny disposition and an attractive personality are the folks who get most of life's enjoyment, pleasure and success.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan furnishes thin, watery blood with the necessary nourishment to enrich it, enabling it to supply energy, vitality, and strength to every part of the body.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan to patients suffering from anemia because its beneficial and lasting qualities are well known to the medical profession.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in either of tablet form. Both forms contain exactly the same strength and medicinal properties.

When you buy Pepto-Mangan of your druggist, be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.

KILLED BY ENGINE

Mr. Mart E. Tye, employee of the American Railway Express Company this city, was struck by a passenger engine in front of the Passenger Depot here at about 11 o'clock, receiving severe injuries which resulted in his death Wednesday night at 3 o'clock a.m. It is reported that Mr. Tye had pushed an express truck up to a position where it could be loaded from train No. 22, and had stooped over to pick up a stone with which to block the wheels, when a passenger engine on its way to the roundhouse backed into Mr. Tye and knocked him over on the concrete walk. His skull was fractured and one of his legs broken. He was immediately taken to Dr. Barker's office where every possible means were used to save his life but his injuries were so severe that he only lived until 3 o'clock the following morning.

Mr. Tye is survived by his wife and two sons who have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss. —Corbin Times.
